

A Bill to Expand Title X Funding

1 Be it enacted by this Florida Forensic League Student Congress here assembled that:

2 Section 1. The “gag rule” and “physical separation rule” restrictions on Title X
3 funding shall be banned. Additionally, $100 million will be allocated to 4 clinics that lost funding on account of these discriminatory policies.

5 Section 2. The “gag rule” prohibits health care providers serving in Title X funded 6 institutions from referring patients for abortion care. The “physical 7 separation rule” requires separate facilities, separate staff, separate 8 accounting and medical records, and separate workstations for abortion 9 and non-abortion related care.

10 Section 3. This legislation will be implemented by the Office of Population Affairs.

11 A. Title X clinics will not be required to provide family planning 12 services.

13 B. This legislation will not fund abortions in compliance with the 14 Hyde Amendment. All additional funds will be distributed for 15 contraceptives, screening, and other health services.

16 C. The funding will be distributed on a population-based need basis
17 that does with no accounting for the specific family planning 18 services a given clinic provides.

19 Section 4. This legislation shall be implemented January 1, 2022.

20 Section 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to End Palestinian Support for Terrorist Groups

1       Whereas,       In 2017, Palestine was reported to have paid $345 million to convicted 2                       terrorists and their families; and 3       Whereas,       terrorist organizations like Hamas are strengthened through this 4                       continuous stream of aid; and 5       Whereas,       Hamas has killed upwards of 1900 civilians and made the Gaza Strip a 6                       violent region; and 7       Whereas,       the United States has already levied economic sanctions on the Palestinian 8                       government and specific officials; and 9       Whereas,       these sanctions have created massive strain on Palestine’s economy and 10                      pressured Palestine to pursue negotiations with the United States; now, 11                      therefore, be it
12      Resolved,      By the Congress here assembled that the United States open negotiations
13                      with Palestine and offer sanction relief on the condition that Palestine 14                      limits its support towards terrorist organizations.

A Resolution to Rejoin the Trans-Pacific Partnership

1       Whereas,       The Trans-Pacific Partnership, or TPP, is a free trade agreement between 2                       Canada, Mexico, Peru, Chile, New Zealand, Australia, Singapore,
3                       Malaysia, Japan, Vietnam, and Brunei, countries that border the Pacific 4                       Ocean; and

5       Whereas,       On January 23, 2017, President Trump signed to withdraw from the TPP;
6                       and

7       Whereas,       The Obama administration and many trade economists argued that the deal 8                       lowered tariffs and increased market access, which would have reduced 9                       prices for consumers, spurred cross-border investment, and boosted U.S.
10                      exports; and

11       Whereas,       The TPP was set to become the world’s largest free trade deal, covering 40 12                      percent of the global economy; and

13       Whereas,       Data from the U.S. International Trade Commission shows that U.S. trade
14                      with TPP countries amounted to more than $1.5 trillion, or about 40
15                      percent of all U.S. trade, before withdrawing; and

16       Whereas,       The United States would greatly benefit from the TPP; now, therefore, be 17                      it

18       Resolved,       By the Congress here assembled that the United States should rejoin the 19                      Trans-Pacific Partnership as it is a comprehensive deal that would provide 20                      economic growth.
